

The following is a Brief of our English PLC that was held on Monday, October 10. Once our English Department business was completed we focused on the PLC portion of the meeting.

- Our PLC focused on the sharing of new software and the sharing starboard ideas during our PLC meetings.
- Our PLC had a short discussion concerning the Four Domains of Danielson's Framework of Teaching.
- OUR PLC also discussed several language differences of the MAP test such as Theis Statement instead of our use of Topic Sentence; Tone instead of our use of Mood, etc.
