CONSENT AGENDA ENDS
Legislative Update	Mr. Holmes provided a legislative update. SF0062 Civics Transparency Act failed with a 4 to 5 vote in House Education. HB 0030 School Finance-Increasing Cash Reserves, which increases cash reserves from 15% to 30% for five years, and SF 0031 Absenteeism and Truancy passed and were signed by the governor. Funding for new construction for Little Powder School passed, and the design process will tentatively begin in July.
Public Comments	Public comments were made regarding the following: thankfulness for the playground equipment at Meadowlark Elementary being fixed; and a parent concern with their student.
Trustee Celebrations	Chairman Ochs shared how grateful she is that SF0062 failed at the legislative session. Nothing would have been gained from teachers tracking every material or supply used; instead, they can concentrate on quality student education.
Adjournment	With no other business before the board, the meeting was adjourned at 6:45 PM.
