

Campbell County School District #1 Gillette, Wyoming

Language Arts - Grade 5

In Campbell County, fifth grade teachers are expected to teach this language arts curriculum using a well planned, comprehensive, researched based, balanced literacy program. This program includes whole class and small group (guided reading and intervention groups) instruction in phonics, fluency, vocabulary expansion, comprehension, spelling, grammar, writing, speaking, listening, library media, and handwriting. There should be an emphasis on informational text. Materials and resources provided by the district should be the first resource teachers turn to for instruction. Those core resources are:

- Treasures by MacMillan/McGraw-Hill
- Leveled books housed at LLC or in individual schools.
- Lucy Calkin's Units of Study, Six Traits of Writing, and Step Up to Writing.
- Handwriting Without Tears.
- Third – sixth grades may choose from Treasures, Word Journeys or Rebecca Sitton for spelling instruction.

Campbell County teachers add their expertise to instruction to provide the most effective and explicit instruction for students. Teachers are expected to adjust the instruction to meet the students' needs and accelerate their learning.

Reading Standards for Literature (Content Standard)

College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Reading

- 1. Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.
- 2. Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.
- 3. Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.
- 4. Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone.
- 5. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole.
- 6. Assess how point of view or purpose shapes the content and style of a text.
- 7. Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse media and formats, including visually and quantitatively, as well as in words.¹

- 8. Delineate and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, including the validity of the reasoning as well as the relevance and sufficiency of the evidence.
- 9. Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take.
- 10. Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently.

Reading Standards for Literature (Critical-Assess DSPA LA-05-03)

The student will:

RL.5.1.

(Critical-Assess) Quote accurately from a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.

RL.5.2.

(Critical-Assess) Determine a theme of a story, drama, or poem from details in the text, including how characters in a story or drama respond to challenges or how the speaker in a poem reflects upon a topic; summarize the text.

RL.5.3.

(Critical-Assess) Compare and contrast two or more characters, settings, or events in a story or drama, drawing on specific details in the text (e.g., how characters interact).

RL.5.4.

(Critical-Assess) Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative language such as metaphors and similes.

RL.5.5.

Explain how a series of chapters, scenes, or stanzas fits together to provide the overall structure of a particular story, drama, or poem.

RL.5.6.

Describe how a narrator's or speaker's point of view influences how events are described.

RL.5.7.

Analyze how visual and multimedia elements contribute to the meaning, tone, or beauty of a text (e.g., graphic novel, multimedia presentation of fiction, folktale, myth, poem).

RL.5.9.

(Critical-Assess) Compare and contrast stories in the same genre (e.g., mysteries and adventure stories) on their approaches to similar themes and topics.

RL.5.10.

(Critical-Assess) By the end of the year, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poetry, at the high end of the grades 4–5 text complexity band independently and proficiently.

Reading Standards for Informational Text (Critical-Assess DSPA LA-05-03)

The student will:

RI.5.1.

(Critical-Assess) Quote accurately from a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.

RI.5.2.

(Critical-Assess) Determine two or more main ideas of a text and explain how they are supported by key details; summarize the text.

RI.5.3.

Explain the relationships or interactions between two or more individuals, events, ideas, or concepts in a historical, scientific, or technical text based on specific information in the text.

RI.5.4.

(Critical-Assess) Determine the meaning of general academic and domain-specific words and phrases in a text relevant to a grade 5 topic or subject area.

RI.5.5.

(Critical-Assess) Compare and contrast the overall structure (e.g., chronology, comparison, cause/effect, problem/solution) of events, ideas, concepts, or information in two or more texts.

RI.5.6.

Analyze multiple accounts of the same event or topic, noting important similarities and differences in the point of view they represent.

RI.5.7.

(Critical-Assess) Draw on information from multiple print or digital sources, demonstrating the ability to locate an answer to a question quickly or to solve a problem efficiently.

RI.5.8.

Explain how an author uses reasons and evidence to support particular points in a text, identifying which reasons and evidence support which point(s).

RI.5.9.

Integrate information from several texts on the same topic in order to write or speak about the subject knowledgeably.

RI.5.10.

(Critical-Assess) By the end of the year, read and comprehend informational texts, including history/social studies, science, and technical texts, at the high end of the grades 4–5 text complexity band independently and proficiently.

Reading Standards for Foundational Skills (Critical-Assess DSPA LA-05-03)

The student will:

RF.5.3.

(Critical-Asses) Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words.

- a. (Critical-Assess) Use combined knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology (e.g., roots and affixes) to read accurately unfamiliar multisyllabic words in context and out of context.

RF.5.4.

(Critical-Assess) Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.

- a. (Critical-Assess) Read grade-level text with purpose and understanding.
- b. Read grade-level prose and poetry orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression.
- c. (Critical-Assess) Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.

Writing Standards (Content Standard)

College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Writing

- 1. Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.
- 2. Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.
- 3. Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences.
- 4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
- 5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.
- 6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and to interact and collaborate with others.
- 7. Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects based on focused questions, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
- 8. Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, assess the credibility and accuracy of each source, and integrate the information while avoiding plagiarism.
- 9. Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.
- 10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.

The student will:

W.5.1.

Write opinion pieces on topics or texts, supporting a point of view with reasons and information.

- a. Introduce a topic or text clearly, state an opinion, and create an organizational structure in which ideas are logically grouped to support the writer's purpose.
- b. Provide logically ordered reasons that are supported by facts and details.

- c. Link opinion and reasons using words, phrases, and clauses (e.g., consequently, specifically).
- d. Provide a concluding statement or section related to the opinion presented.

W.5.2. (Critical-Assess DSPA LA-05-04-04)

Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly.

- a. (Critical-Assess) Introduce a topic clearly, provide a general observation and focus, and group related information logically; include formatting (e.g., headings), illustrations, and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.
- b. (Critical-Assess) Develop the topic with facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples related to the topic.
- c. Link ideas within and across categories of information using words, phrases, and clauses (e.g., in contrast, especially).
- d. (Critical-Assess) Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic.
- e. (Critical-Assess) Provide a concluding statement or section related to the information or explanation presented.

W.5.3. (Critical-Assess DSPA LA-05-04-03)

Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences.

- a. (Critical-Assess) Orient the reader by establishing a situation and introducing a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally.
- b. Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, description, and pacing, to develop experiences and events or show the responses of characters to situations.
- c. (Critical-Assess) Use a variety of transitional words, phrases, and clauses to manage the sequence of events.
- d. (Critical-Assess) Use concrete words and phrases and sensory details to convey experiences and events precisely.

- e. (Critical-Assess) Provide a conclusion that follows from the narrated experiences or events.

W.5.4.

(Critical-Assess) Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)

W.5.5.

(Critical-Assess) With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

W.5.6.

With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing as well as to interact and collaborate with others; demonstrate sufficient command of keyboarding skills to type a minimum of two pages in a single sitting.

W.5.7.

Conduct short research projects that use several sources to build knowledge through investigation of different aspects of a topic.

W.5.8. (Critical-Assess DSPA LA-05-03)

Recall relevant information from experiences or gather relevant information from print and digital sources; summarize or paraphrase information in notes and finished work, and provide a list of sources.

W.5.9.

Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.

- a. Apply grade 5 Reading standards to literature (e.g., “Compare and contrast two or more characters, settings, or events in a story or a drama, drawing on specific details in the text [e.g., how characters interact]”).
- b. Apply grade 5 Reading standards to informational texts (e.g., “Explain how an author uses reasons and evidence to support particular points in a text, identifying which reasons and evidence support which point[s]”).

W.5.10.

Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

Speaking and Listening Standards (Content Standard)

College and Career Readiness Standards for Speaking and Listening

- 1. Prepare for and participate effectively in a range of conversations and collaborations with diverse partners, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.
- 2. Integrate and evaluate information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally.
- 3. Evaluate a speaker's point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric.
- 4. Present information, findings, and supporting evidence such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
- 5. Make strategic use of digital media and visual displays of data to express information and enhance understanding of presentations.
- 6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and communicative tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

The student will:

SL.5.1.

Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 5 topics and texts, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.

- a. Come to discussions prepared, having read or studied required material; explicitly draw on that preparation and other information known about the topic to explore ideas under discussion.
- b. Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions and carry out assigned roles.
- c. Pose and respond to specific questions by making comments that contribute to the discussion and elaborate on the remarks of others.
- d. Review the key ideas expressed and draw conclusions in light of information and knowledge gained from the discussions.

SL.5.2.

Summarize a written text read aloud or information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally.

SL.5.3.

Summarize the points a speaker makes and explain how each claim is supported by reasons and evidence.

SL.5.4.

Report on a topic or text or present an opinion, sequencing ideas logically and using appropriate facts and relevant, descriptive details to support main ideas or themes; speak clearly at an understandable pace.

SL.5.5.

Include multimedia components (e.g., graphics, sound) and visual displays in presentations when appropriate to enhance the development of main ideas or themes.

SL.5.6.

Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, using formal English when appropriate to task and situation.

Language Standards (Content Standard)

College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Language

- 1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of Standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.
- 2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of Standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.
- 3. Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.
- 4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases by using context clues, analyzing meaningful word parts, and consulting general and specialized reference materials, as appropriate.
- 5. Demonstrate understanding of word relationships and nuances in word meanings.
- 6. Acquire and use accurately a range of general academic and domain-specific words and phrases sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when encountering an unknown term important to comprehension or expression.

The student will:

L.5.1. (Critical-Assess DSPA LA-05-04-06)

Demonstrate command of the conventions of Standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

- a. Explain the function of conjunctions, prepositions, and interjections in general and their function in particular sentences.
- b. (Critical-Assess) Form and use the perfect (e.g., I had walked; I have walked; I will have walked) verb tenses.
- c. (Critical-Assess) Use verb tense to convey various times, sequences, states, and conditions.
- d. (Critical-Assess) Recognize and correct inappropriate shifts in verb tense.*
- e. Use correlative conjunctions (e.g., either/or, neither/nor).

L.5.2. (Critical-Assess DSPA LA-05-04-06)

Demonstrate command of the conventions of Standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

- a. (Critical-Assess) Use punctuation to separate items in a series.*
- b. (Critical-Assess) Use a comma to separate an introductory element from the rest of the sentence.
- c. (Critical-Assess) Use a comma to set off the words yes and no (e.g., Yes, thank you), to set off a tag question from the rest of the sentence (e.g., It's true, isn't it?), and to indicate direct address (e.g., Is that you, Steve?).
- d. Use underlining, quotation marks, or italics to indicate titles of works.
- e. Spell grade-appropriate words correctly, consulting references as needed.

L.5.3.

Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.

- a. Expand, combine, and reduce sentences for meaning, reader/listener interest, and style.
- b. Compare and contrast the varieties of English (e.g., dialects, registers) used in stories, dramas, or poems.

L.5.4. (Critical-Assess DSPA LA-05-03)

Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 5 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.

- a. (Critical-Assess) Use context (e.g., cause/effect relationships and comparisons in text) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
- b. Use common, grade-appropriate Greek and Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., photograph, photosynthesis).
- c. (Critical-Assess) Consult reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation and determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases.

L.5.5. (Critical-Assess DSPA LA-05-03)

Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.

- a. (Critical-Assess) Interpret figurative language, including similes and metaphors, in context.
- b. Recognize and explain the meaning of common idioms, adages, and proverbs.
- c. (Critical-Assess) Use the relationship between particular words (e.g., synonyms, antonyms, homographs) to better understand each of the words.

L.5.6. (Critical-Assess DSPA LA-05-03)

Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, including those that signal contrast, addition, and other logical relationships (e.g., however, although, nevertheless, similarly, moreover, in addition).

LA-05-05 - LIBRARY MEDIA (Content Standard)

C - Critical--Assessment Reporting Required

State Standard and Benchmark Correlation:

LA5.1.1 Use Knowledge of Word Meanings/Develop Vocabulary

LA5.2.2 Write a Variety of Expressive & Expository Pieces

Students will be knowledgeable about the library media center and able to utilize its resources at a level appropriate for fifth grade. Instruction should take place through integration of content such as social studies research or science projects. Assessment should be based on observed behaviors when students are applying the appropriate library skills. The classroom teacher or the library media specialist may do assessment. Language Arts assessment sheets must be used for the assessment and are the responsibility of the classroom teacher. A single evaluation will be made for this competency and will include all critical objectives within the competency area.

LA-05-05-01 - Use of the Library Media Center (Objective)

C-CS - Critical-Assessment at Content Standard

The information-literate student appreciates literature and other creative expressions of information. Students will be able to both understand and enjoy creative works presented in all formats.

LA-05-05-02 - Checking Out Materials (Objective)

C-CS - Critical-Assessment at Content Standard

The information-literate student will apply the principles of media circulation procedures.

LA-05-05-03 - Locating Information (Objective)

T – Teach

The information-literate student will identify a variety of information sources, use successful strategies for locating information, and access that information efficiently and easily.

LA-05-05-04 - Producing /Communicating Info/Ideas in Appropriate Formats (Objective)

T – Teach

The information-literate student will use technology tools and applications to organize, produce, and communicate information (e.g., desktop publishing, databases, multimedia presentations, and electronic searches).
